The Jewish Museum Berlin is one of the leading institutions in the European museum landscape and an architectural highlight of the German capital. Our exclusive event rooms, located in the old baroque building, offer a variety of event opportunities - from elegant receptions, professional get-togethers and workshops to festive gala-dinners in our central glass courtyard. A large museum garden offers room for all kinds of summerly occasions, besides providing exceptional views on the world-renowned museum building by Daniel Libeskind.
