

KOSMOS EVENTLOCATION

Link to meeting guide Berlin

The former movie theater KOSMOS is an architecturally valuable building, which was built in 1961 and modernized the end of the 90's. Thanks to the unequalled charm and the extensive restructuring of this listed building, it has reclaimed the status of a popular public location. The owners are cognizant of the historical significance of this building as a meeting and communication point. KOSMOS offers all possibilities to ensure the implementation and success of your event - for example ten perfectly furnished rooms as well as the latest light and sound system or even complete service packages are at your disposal - flexible and versatile. Welcome to the KOSMOS!
