Link to meeting guide Berlin

Join small groups led by Pulitzer Prize winning photographer Karsten Thielker and set out to “stalk your prey” in the urban jungle. Learn to look, and trust your intuition – and discover many subjects you might otherwise have walked right past. Choose the right details, select a suitable perspective – capture and save. With Karsten Thielker’s advice, you not only learn the optimal technique for your shots, but also about the best photo apps, visual language and composition. A remarkable chance to explore the city of unlimited opportunities, and create a photo series of your favourite images!
