Between tradition and innovation - under the roof of Berlin's oldest industrial monument is a highly attractive location for your event in Berlin! The Royal Porcelain Manufactory Berlin (Königliche Porzellan-Manufaktur Berlin, KPM) offers more than 3,000 m² of space for banquets, conferences, product presentations and other celebrations in a large or exclusive setting with a large inner courtyard, a former kiln hall and historical grouting. The new event areas of "Alte Schlämmerei" have an industrial design and offer further event rooms in different sizes, which can also be rented parallel to each other. In addition, we offer exclusive incentives and site programmes.
