

GREEN BERLIN – FROM ROCOCO PALACE PARK TO FISH FARMING ON HIGH

Link to meeting guide Berlin

Stroll with us through historic parks and gardens, or meet city beekeepers as they make their way through romantic community gardens set next to city railways tracks. The mobile raised flower beds have long left dark back yards, and now have pride of place on Berlin's urban roofs. Join us where nature meets culture to explore the guerrilla gardens on the vast Tempelhofer Feld park or Kreuzberg's Princess Gardens. In the early hours at 5 am, listen to the dawn chorus and chat with the Weichardt organic baker about what makes a healthy diet. The new wave of urban agriculture and gardening stands for home-grown wholesome nutrition. When it comes to innovative ways of saving the world, Berliners have a very fertile imagination!
