

WHODUNIT DINNER

Link to meeting guide Berlin

18h59. A guest in the restaurant consults his watch inconspicuously. Not because he is hungry. He has anyway not come to eat. He will kill somebody. And he will make a mistake while doing so. Which one, can be found out by you. Who will succeed in taking up the red thread in this realistically staged murder case, combining correctly and convicting the murderer?

"We were simply enthralled! You offered us an absolutely wonderful evening. We have laughed a lot and our colleagues had real fun! The extremely positive feedback from our employees has flooded us from all levels since Saturday." (Ostfriesische Teegesellschaft Laurens Spethmann GmbH)
