

INNOVATION SAFARI

Link to meeting guide Berlin

Are you looking for a sophisticated program that engages participants while offering relevant information on issues shaping our future? At one of Europe's most intriguing locations – the EUREF Campus – we make mobility tangible and energy a visible experience. This is where you can take a test ride in an autonomous shuttle, learn about how the mobility of the future is being developed or climb up to the top of Europe's largest gasometer for a breath-taking view of Berlin. Come join our safari and get a unique look at how a city of the future operates – today. Contact us and we'll happily arrange a program that's tailored to your interests.
