Soapbox Building

Soapbox Building

Ready, set, go! Hit the gas and lead your team to the pole position!

Before the grand finale, however, you will have to plan, build, tinker and screw. But speed is not everything you need in order to win – creative minds are required to help collect valuable design points for the overall score.

Team spirit, creativity and active communication are at the core of the soapbox rally. Within a couple of hours, small teams have to plan, build and design their race cars using complete and customisable soapbox kits. At the end, the ultimate test decides about the fate of each team. Who can impress with speed, creativity and teamwork?

Golf Events

Carefree golfing with the entire team!

During the cross golfing tour, small teams play their way through parks, forests and other exciting outdoor locations. Tricky and fun obstacles turn your surroundings into an unforgettable golf experience. In case such a tour is not possible in your environment, we can offer a golf challenge with diverse stations such as teeing off, putting, or target shooting.

For conference buildings and large hotels, we also offer an indoor version – the golf tournament. Thanks to our mobile equipment, we can turn any hotel or location into a diverse, action-packed golf course that the teams can compete on.

During disc golf, frisbee and golf come together to form an exciting and entertaining game for young and old.
