Agency service for tickets (BWC 2020 / Museumspass)

General terms and delivery conditions of visitBerlin

The agency partner distributes the Berlin WelcomeCard (BWC) and the Museumspass on behalf of visitBerlin. The sales price of the BWC includes the fare for the public transport services included in the ticket, said fare being collected on behalf of the Berlin transport companies BVG and S-Bahn Berlin. The agency partner is entitled to collect the sales price from the customer. The goods ordered will be delivered by DHL. Delivery can take up to 5 days. An additional shipping fee equal to the shipping costs incurred will also be invoiced. The shipping costs are borne by the partner agency placing the order. Notice of any damages of the goods or deviations to the order quantity is to be made to visitBerlin within 5 business days after delivery. The wholesale price for the tickets equals the retail sales price of the ticket less the commission to be paid to the reseller excl. VAT as stipulated in the price sheet/commission schedule. The commission rate for the Museumspass is 10% of the retail sales price excl. VAT.

Together with the delivery of the goods, the partner will receive an invoice payable within 14 days after delivery. Please return unsold tickets (max. 20% of the total amount ordered per year) at the end of the calendar year. We will reimburse the applicable purchase price amount for these returned tickets. The agency will bear the costs of the return dispatch.

The agency partner bears all risk of damage or loss of visitBerlin goods once received. visitBerlin assumes no liability in this regard. If the goods are lost or damaged visitBerlin will not reimburse the price to the agency.
